When a heart is touched by the events of life, for example, the more unsavoury, those situations and words that rip one s heart to shreds; then if you are a poet (or even if not) it seems to be a release, a form of written therapy, self expression which has to be employed. I call it my poetical diary. I gave up writing a diary years ago, mainly because of two reasons. One, to be so dedicated and disciplined to write an entry almost every day seemed just a bit too much. Two, some of my girlfriends actually tried to read my, so called, secret thoughts , which annoyed me greatly. In poetry I can keep a diary of sorts, without the fear of someone reading something I don t wish them to read. Within this work I have compiled all those poems that I considered fit into the category of the title; expressing, the hurts tears and fears of a wounded heart.
